

i. Sample of rubrics especially for internship, project and thesis writing

Faculty of Nursing, Srinakharinwirot University Practice Evaluation Form

NS 413_01

Course ☐ First Semester ☐ Second Semester ☐ Summer Semester, Academic year.....

Student's name..... Student ID. Section..... Year.....

Practice place..... Ward..... Practice period.....

Topics for evaluation	Weighed score	Level of score					Note
		4	3	2	1	0
Part 1 Nursing practice
1. Being the nursing team leader	3
2. Diagnosing nursing problems and reporting to relevant people	2
3. Planning the operations of the nursing team	3
4. Nursing practice capability	2
5. Having communication skills for internal and external coordination	2
6. Using knowledge in nursing practice	3
7. Self-protecting yourself danger in nursing practice	1
8. Evaluating the nursing performance of the service recipients in the responsibility	1
Total score 68 points	points
Part 2 Attitude towards profession and nursing ethics	1
1. Having professional ethics	1
2. Having self-responsibility and responsibility for work	1
3. Sacrificing, being honest and having discipline	1
4. Having reliable personality	1
5. Behaving in good deeds	1
6. Providing nursing care by taking into account the cultural differences and the rights of service recipients	1
7. Being a good model for others, both in their own and operations	1
8. Solving problems and making the right decisions	1
Total 32 points	points

Suggestions

.....

.....

.....

Interpretation of scores

Very good (4) means that students are able to perform all 4 assessment topics completely and correctly.

Good (3) means that students are able to perform 3 assessment topics correctly.

.....Student

.....Lecturer

(.....)

(.....)

Date.....Month Year.....

Date.....Month Year.....

Fair (2) means that students are able to perform 2 assessment topics correctly.

Improvement needed (1) means that students are able to perform 1 assessment topic correctly.

Not practicing (0) means that students do not perform the assessment topics.

Details of practice evaluation form

No	Topics for assessment	Behavior / Information used for assessment
Part 1: Nursing practice
1	Being the nursing team leader	1. Planning to completely solve nursing problems for the service recipients of the team 2. Making decisions in various situations under the context of being the team leader 3. Organizing task delegation to the nursing team 4. Following up work and supervising team members
2	Diagnosing nursing problems and reporting to relevant people	1. Collecting complete information and linking the relationship of the information correctly 2. Reporting the information of service recipients to relevant persons until co-workers and service recipients are benefited 3. Identifying the problems or the needs of service recipients in order to operate shift handover 4. Using language fluently, clearly and accurately
3	Planning the operations of the nursing team	1. Prioritizing problems / task correctly 2. Determining / assigning task to the nursing team correctly 3. Determining the pattern / method to supervise and monitor the operation of the team 4. Giving feedback or suggestions to the team at Pre-conference
4	Nursing practice capability	1. Preparing materials, equipment and tools suitable for activities 2. Performing nursing activities correctly according to techniques and procedures 3. Spending time doing each activity appropriately 4. Having the expertise to teach or give advice on nursing skills
5	Having communication skills for internal and external coordination	1. Using words, media and equipment correctly while performing shift handover 2. Communicating with good spoken language and body language 3. Coordinating with both internal and external agencies 4. Using written language for academic communication appropriately
6	Using knowledge in nursing practice	1. Having correct knowledge about the diseases, treatment and nursing care 2. Developing and increasing knowledge at all time 3. Following up and regularly improving assigned tasks
7	Self-protecting yourself danger in nursing practice	1. Always taking self-care 2. Following the principles of infection control from health services strictly 3. Self-protecting from harm and injury from using materials in nursing practice 4. Identifying risks and informing / giving advice in operational management
8	Evaluating the nursing performance of the service recipients in the responsibility	1. Summarizing and judging the results of nursing practice according to the assessment criteria correctly 2. Solving problems and obstacles that occur 3. Supervising and following up of nursing operations such as mid round and post conference 4. Informing nursing operations on duty shift and specifying the nursing plan for the next duty shift

No	Topics for assessment	Behavior / Information used for assessment
Part 2 Attitude towards profession and nursing ethics
1	Having professional ethics	1. Performing nursing practice based on professional laws and related laws 2. Performing nursing practice based on patient rights 3. Performing nursing practice by adhering to professional ethics 4. Expressing good attitude towards the nursing profession
2	Having self-responsibility and responsibility for work	1. Working and studying assigned patients as scheduled 2. Being careful and paying attention to monitor to ensure quality of work 3. Expressing gratitude and apology according to occasions 4. Accepting mistakes and not refusing responsibility
3	Sacrificing, being honest and having discipline	1. Having discipline at work 2. Arriving at the ward earlier to prepare for the operation 3. Being honest to patients and profession 4. Being generous to the public without expecting compensation
4	Having reliable personality	1. Controlling emotions and having proper manners 2. Respecting the team members in the proper way 3. Listening to suggestions with appropriate facial expressions 4. Showing leadership of the nursing team
5	Behaving in good deeds	1. Being a good citizen 2. Being gratitude 3. Being responsible for patients, institution and profession 4. Being responsible for colleagues / society
6	Providing nursing care by taking into account the cultural differences and the rights of service recipients	1. Performing self-introduction and explaining to the patient before giving nursing care every time 2. Respecting and honoring the culture, religion and beliefs of service recipients 3. Not disclosing information or taking pictures that violate the rights of service recipients 4. Providing information about nursing care appropriately
7	Being a good model for others, both in their own and operations	1. Dressing and behaving properly according to the regulations 2. Following the rules and regulations of the institution 3. Being faithful and reliable 4. Expressing commitment to work and sacrificing for the whole
8	Solving problems and making the right decisions	1. Being decisive and insisting on the benefits of service recipients and profession 2. Strengthening unity in the team regardless of personal preference or dislike 3. Reporting the urgent problems of the service to the health team personnel correctly 4. Solving or resolving conflicts