

Part IV: Exhibits

E. Educational Philosophy Education Philosophy of the Program

Education is Growth.

The program has transcribed the educational philosophy into action by developing human resources through educational concept of constructivism and connectivism. By the concept of connectivism, the program has actively designed a variety of activities that take place or incorporate with local community, while constructivism concept has been delivered through active learning as well as student-centered learning approaches.